GOOD FOOD, WELL SOURCED

We believe a good breakfast starts with exceptional ingredients, carefully sourced from producers who share our appreciation for quality.

Our pastries are freshly supplied by Made by Batch, while our pork comes from Anna's Happy Trotters, where the pigs are genuinely free range. Remarkably, only around 2–3% of British pigs are reared this way, making their commitment to traditional free-range farming all the more special.

Our free range eggs come from The Good Egg Fellas, and our spelt flour is supplied by Craggs & Co, the UK's largest producer of spelt wheat, in nearby Sedgefield. We also bring a taste of the island to our breakfast table with tomatoes from Isle of Wight Tomatoes.

From local producers just down the road to carefully selected British suppliers further afield, every ingredient has a story, and every choice reflects our commitment to quality, provenance and good food.
